The 17th May 1888.

Comp No. 268.—The following rule approved by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja is published for general information:—

In the Munsell where wild animals taking shelter in any Government jungle quite close to gardens and paddy fields cause damage to crops, the Deputy Commissioner may, on the complaint of the ryot or ryots concerned and after due enquiry into the complaint and as regards the description and number of valuable trees standing, grant a license or licenses in the form annexed empowering such ryot or ryots to clear jungle within 100 yards or such distance as the Deputy Commissioner may in his discretion consider necessary according to circumstances, from his or their gardens or partly fields to prevent the damage complained of. Provided that in so clearing, trees of reserved classes shall not be cut except their lower branches calculated to afford shelter to wild animals. All trees capable of yielding timber felled on the authority of the license shall be delivered to the Forest Officer demanding the same.

3. The license granted under the foregoing rule shall be deemed to have been granted under Section 25 of the Forest Rules and any license holder acting against any of the terms of the license, shall be liable to punishment under Section 40 of the said rules.

Name and Residence of the Applicant.	Name of the Jungle intended for clearing.	Number of reserved trees standing on the land to be cleared.	No. and description of reserved trees capable of yielding timber to be delivered up to the Forest Department.	Limit of time for clearing.	Special conditions if any as regards the protection of the Jungle.	To whom license is to be returned and the date of return.
